

Back Home Again – John Denver

There's a storm across the valley, clouds are rolling in
The afternoon is heavy on your shoulders
There's a truck out on the four lane a mile or more away
The whining of his wheel just makes it colder

He's an hour away from riding on your prayers up in the sky
And ten days on the road are barely gone
There's a fire softly burning, supper's on the stove
And there's a light in your eyes that makes him warm

(Chorus)

And hey, it's good to be back home again
Sometimes this old farm feels like a long lost friend
Yes, and hey, it's good to be back home again

Now there's all the news to tell him how'd you spend your time
What's the latest things the neighbors say
And your mother called last Friday, Sunshine made her cry
And you felt the baby move just yesterday

(Chorus)

And oh, the time that I can lay this tired old body down
And feel your fingers feather soft upon me
The kisses that I live for, the love that lights the way
The happiness that living with you brings me

It's the sweetest thing I know of just spendin' time with you
It's the little things that make a house a home.
Like a fire softly burning, supper on the stove
And a light in your eyes that makes me warm

(Chorus)

(Chorus)
